

Creator God

All the sky is a canvas stretching,
Only for my Maker's hands
And the world it wraps in wonder,
All of a love song, all of a dance

Hallelujah, let the earth cry out
All the praises of Creator God
Hallelujah, let the sky break forth
Holy promise of the Living One

Every sea is a roaring anthem,
Every breaking wave a praise
The tide is drawn and bound in Heaven,
Singing Your glory from the earliest days

Longing, longing from the garden
Longing for our Maker
To make all things new
And we're aching, aching for redemption
Aching for our Maker
To make the sad untrue

Hallelujah, let the earth cry out
All the praises of Creator God
Hallelujah, let the sky break forth
Holy promise, that you'll come again,
Holy promise, that you call me friend
Holy promise, death will be undone
Holy promise, You're the Living One
