

Son of David

In this quiet moment, search my heart know my fear, show my sin
In this quiet moment, resonate
Your words of life, deep within

Lift my fallen eyes to your face,
The maker and keeper of my days

For you have loved me like no other
Son of David
You've set the captive sinner free
I was lost and I was ruined, but
Son of David, Your grace covers me
Yes your grace covers me

In this quiet moment, Lord I come
As broken clay, sin destroyed
In this quiet moment, Lord make new
And fill this heart with boundless joy

Lift my fallen eyes to your face
The Father and Giver of all grace

Lord You are holy,
enthroned on praises
You will deliver us!
